Calgary's Mayor Admits Loans From Middle Man

CALGARY — Mayor Don Mackay has told a judicial inquiry into civic administration Clifford Walker, a personal friend, had paid for trips to Hawaii and Mexico for himself and his wife and on two occasions loaned him $2,000.

Mr. Walker has been described as "liason man" for a New York group interested in developing a shopping centre here.

Mayor Mackay said it was "a surprise" to him to learn Mr. Walker had written off the loans.

The inquiry is investigating circumstances under which city land was sold for $6,000 an acre to Simpson-Sears and Calgary North Hill Shopping Ltd.
